LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:59 a. m. and sets at 5:21 p. m. High water at 4:43 a. m. and sets 5:07 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight, Saturday partly cloudy; moderate temperature; light winds, mostly southerly.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY D. SWAIN.

Mrs. Mary D. Swain died at 6:50 o'clock last night at her home, 208 Wolfe street. Mrs. Swain was the widow of Stephen Swain, and is survived by four children—Mrs. Ruth S. Field, Miss Anna K. Swain, Mr. S. C. Swain and Dr. Benjamin H. Swain, of Washington. The deceased was in the 86th year of her age. She was the daughter of George Duffey, who in bygone years conducted the locksmith business on north Royal street, and of Mrs. Rosina Duffey, who was near the cemetery at the time of her death. Mrs. Swain leaves a brother and a sister—Mr. Samuel Duffey and Mrs. Samuel Sipple. She was also a sister of the late George and John Duffey. The deceased was a member of the Second Presbyterian Church and had been faithful and consistent throughout her long life.

GRAHAM-WHITE'S PROPOSED FLIGHT.

The following is the course over which Graham-White will fly tomorrow morning, weather permitting: From Benning track Washington to the Army War College, to the Washington Monument, to Jones Point Light, below Alexandria, to Benning. He will fly over this complete course four times. Starting from Benning the fifth time, he will proceed as far as the Washington Monument and then return to the track, in order to encompass a total distance of 107 miles, 3 miles more than Hoxsey's record. Every turn will be to the left, except that at the War College. That is the turn in favor of airmen. The flight will begin some time after 9 o'clock.

Acting Mayor Marbury today received a message from Washington stating that members of the aeroplane club of that city would come to Alexandria this evening and place markers at Jones's Point for the guidance of Graham-White in his flight tomorrow morning.

BLACK FACED COMEDIAN.

One of the cleverest black faced comedians of modern times is on the bill at the Opera House the latter part of the week; also a taste of excellent Hebrew comedy and trapeze and ring performance. Chas. George, the funny man; Perry and Elliott, the Hebrew comedy, and Jordan, the trapeze and ring performer are the entertainers. Big matinee tomorrow. Bring the children: five cents to all.

CASES DISMISSED.

There were but two cases before the Police Court this morning. A marketman, who had sold an article which was unsatisfactory to the purchaser, was dismissed, as was also a colored woman living on upper Duke street, who had been cited to appear and answer the charge of using unconvictional language toward a colored neighbor.

LIGHTHOUSE CHANGES.

The following changes of keepers of light stations in the Fifth district are announced: Theodore Schatzler, transferred from Seven-Foot Knoll, as assistant at Ragged Point, Potomac river. James O. Casey, from Ragged Point, as assistant at Old Plantation Flats, Va. William P. Slacum, from Piney Point, to keeper of Cobb Point bar. Stephen B. Meekins appointed second assistant keeper of Smith Point in place of H. K. Teater, resigned.

ANOTHER DONATION.

Mr. Ernest Boyer chairman of the committee of the Knights of Pythias bazaar, today received from Mr. O. B. Hopkins, president of the Griffin Furniture Company, a handsome mirror to be voted to the successful candidate.

ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT.

The musical and literary entertainment which was given in the league hall under the auspices of Epworth League Library of the Washington street M. E. Church South last night, was an interesting affair throughout. A large and appreciative audience was present.

MASONIC.

Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons last night paid a fraternal visit to Alexandria-Washington Lodge and during the evening conferred the Master Mason's degree upon a candidate. A number of prominent Masons from a distance were present. The ladies who managed the Masonic fair given last year were presented with copies of the Masonic Temple prospective. After the business session refreshments were served.

CONCERT ON TRAIN.

Folk Miller, with the members of his company, passed through Alexandria about 9 o'clock this morning on the way to Charlottesville, where the company will give a concert tonight. The train stopped a few minutes at the union station, during which time the company sang some old songs which were greatly enjoyed by the passengers and people at the station.

SPECIAL GRAND JURY.

The following special grand jury has been summoned by the Corporation Court for Wednesday next, the 19th: B. Baer Jr., C. W. Howell, P. T. Harrington, S. L. Monroe, E. S. Leadbeater, J. E. W. Timberman, C. H. Callahan, T. W. Robinson and C. B. Swan.

Shoes less than half price—200 pairs "Misses" Shoes that cost to manufacture $1.50 and $1.75, and sold at $2.00 and $2.50, will be sacrificed at 88c per pair. John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King st. 9c.

PREDICTED HER DEATH.

With premonition that the end was drawing near, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Reichle, while mortally ill last Saturday afternoon in the presence of friends by strange fatality predicted the hour of her death. "I shall be stricken speechless next Monday morning at 6 o'clock," she told them, "and at 9 o'clock in the evening I shall be dead." Her prophecy of minutes, as she passed in the shadow of death, as she passed away Monday night in her home near town, but she retained power of articulation until a few moments before the end. The funeral was held Thursday morning from Trinity Episcopal Church. The body was taken to Alexandria for interment. Mrs. Reichle was 63 years old and had suffered from a lingering illness. Two weeks ago she returned from a hospital in Alexandria where she had undergone treatment for several months in hope of regaining health. She had lived in Prince William county for about 20 years, and had many friends who deeply mourn her death. Mrs. Reichle is survived by her husband, Mr. Louis Reichle, 76 years old. (Manassas Democrat.)

PERSONAL.

On the democratic ticket in Vinta, Okla., appears the name of Mr. E. D. Ficklin for re-election as treasurer. Mr. Ficklin is a brother of Col. T. H. Ficklin, of this city and has many friends in Alexandria, and neighborhood. He has held his office so acceptably for several years past that there is no fear of his defeat next month. Major Jas. E. King, of the 2nd Battalion, First Virginia Regiment, was in Leesburg on Tuesday evening, and assisted at the drill of the local military company. Major King is much interested in the organization of the company there, as it will be attached to his battalion, and he will give it much of his attention. The local company will be designated as Co. H, and attached to the 2nd Battalion, with Alexandria, Charlottesville and Fredericksburg.

Among the officers chosen in the regiment of High School Cadets in Washington yesterday were: F. Clinton Knight, captain and Charles Deahl, first lieutenant of their respective companies. These young men are all of Alexandria.

A paragraph published in this column yesterday stating that Mr. C. H. Smithers and Miss Ida May Baggett would be married at the M. E. Church South in this city on October 26, was taken from the Charlottesville Progress and was evidently furnished that paper by a wag, as Mr. and Mrs. Smithers were married on October 26, 1892, and some of their many friends in Charlottesville evidently want to play a practical joke upon them.

Mr. G. L. Boothe has returned from Richmond, where he went to appear before the State Corporation Commission in reference to the merger of the W. A. & M. V., the W. A. & F. C. and the Washington and Virginia Railway companies.

The stork visited the residence of Mr. F. M. Penn on Prince street, this morning and left there a fine nine-and-half pound girl. Mother and daughter are both doing well and Mr. Penn is receiving the congratulations of his many friends.

SURPRISE THEATRE.

The American Male and Female Minstrels played to a packed house last night. Every act received hearty applause. The singing and dancing was among the best that has been seen here this season. Some of the jokes are not new but the ability of the end keep the audience laughing all through the show. This company will present the "Chowder Club" tonight and there will be an entire change of programme. The "country school" interspersed with ten vaudeville acts, will be featured tomorrow night.

Race at the rink tonight.

The Chanler-Cavallieri Case.

Paris, Oct. 14.—That she did not do so well financially by marrying "Sheriff" Bob Chanler, is the emphatic reiteration today of Mme. Lina Cavallieri-Chanler. To a United Press representative whom she received today at her home in the Avenue Messine, she said with great indignation.

"I read everywhere of the incalculable advantages my few months of marriage to Mr. Chanler have brought me. Let me tell you something. The real value of the now famous Red Hook property is $12,000. A $6,000 mortgage hangs over it; remainder, $6,000. All the New York houses mentioned are worth perhaps $300,000 and not $600,000 as stated. Moreover this figure has been dug up into considerably. For instance, Mr. Chanler's first wife has a $100,000 claim on the sum and a $140,000 mortgage claim on me net but $60,000. Total $66,000. Why $66,000 wouldn't buy one pearl necklace. The income of Mr. Chanler doesn't amount to $60,000 a year. I am guaranteed only $20,000 a year from it.

"Let it be understood once for all that I didn't marry Mr. Chanler because I loved him. It was not a marriage of love. Mr. Chanler was not able to secure my consent to the marriage until he paraded a love without limit, passionate, violent—and it may be added inferentially bolstering it up with a serious guarantee for the future. "And that's all!"

PRESIDENT APPROVES PLAN.

President Taft yesterday finally approved plans for raising the wreck of the battleship Maine from Havana harbor, which calls for the completion of the work on or before the thirtieth anniversary of the destruction of the war vessel, February 15 next. The work is to be done according to plans made by army engineers and to be under direction of an engineer officer. The president believes that the paragon question in the raising of the Maine is the determining for all time of the cause of the explosion and whether the source of destruction was from the outside or inside the vessel. For this reason he desires that the work shall be retained in the hands of the army engineers and not let out by contract. By direction of the president, Spain has been invited to send a representative to Havana to be present during the work of exposing and removing the wreck.

Carroll Donnelly, of Washington, D. C., will race Leo Sweeney at Armory Hall tonight.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The schooner Clara Leonard, from Nominia with canned tomatoes for Alexandria merchants, has arrived.

Nellie Gaddis, colored, wife of Walter Gaddis, died at her home, 424 north Patrick street, last night.

The German Club will meet tonight at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

Eighth applicants took the three day civil service examination, ending today, at the postoffice, for scientific assistant, Agriculture Department.

Mr. Peter Ford, an old citizen of Alexandria, died in Washington Monday. He was a brother of the late Josiah Ford, and was 79 years of age.

Forty-three army officers on duty at the War Department started out from Fort Myer, early today, on the annual 90-mile riding test.

The regular meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held at the truck house tonight. Business of importance will come before the meeting, and it is requested by the officers that there be a full attendance of the members.

Mount Vernon Council, No. 1, Daughters of American, will meet tonight in their hall, corner of Prince and Royal street (the Elks building), at which time four candidates will be initiated in the mysteries of the order. Members of other councils are invited to be present.

The light committee of the city council was organized last night with the election of Mr. John T. Harrison as chairman. The rules of the former committee were adopted. The committee is composed of the following other members: Aldermen J. B. Fitzgerald and Jacob Brill and Councilmen R. D. Brumback and F. C. Spinks.

The lighthouse authorities have arranged for the establishment of three sets of range lights along the eastern channel of the Kettle Bottom shoals, from Blackstone Island to abreast of Wilkeson's wharf. The lighthouse service steamer Jessamine is reported in the lower river arranging the new lights.

The bugeye Skylight, sunk in a collision with the sloop Enola, about three weeks ago, has been raised and towed to this city where she will be repaired and made ready for service. The Skylight was purchased as she lay sunk off Hallowing point by an Alexandrian. After several days' work he succeeded in stopping the hole in her side and bringing her to this city.

Chief Robinson, of Fredericksburg, was in this city today having in charge Howard Burgess, colored, who was arrested in Washington and who is wanted in Fredericksburg on the charge of robbing a woman. The prisoner was lodged in the station house till the train left for Fredericksburg this evening.

A New England supper will be given tonight at the residence of Miss Theresa Thompson, at Arcurus, Fairfax county, for the benefit of the circle of King's Daughters of that neighborhood. And tomorrow night an oyster supper will be given at Woodland for the same object.

See the Donnelly-Sweeney race tonight.

D. A. R.

The 14th annual conference of the Virginia National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution came to a close in Bristol last night. The features of the day were the hearing of reports submitted by chairman of committees, a reading by Miss Marion F. Spiegner, and an address by Mrs. Lyman S. Swornstead, corresponding secretary of the national organization.

At the night session, Mrs. Wilbur Sevier, of Bristol, sang a solo, followed which Judge Jos. L. Kelly delivered an address, his subject being: "The Rights of Women Yesterday and Today."

A part of the day was devoted to an excursion to the natural tunnel in Scott county, Virginia, where many of the visiting ladies saw for the first time one of the greatest natural wonders in America.

The conference last night re-elected Mrs. Samuel W. Jamison, of Roanoke, state regent, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hamner, treasurer.

Mrs. J. H. McCue, of Bristol, was elected to succeed Mrs. W. C. Marshall as vice-regent, while Mrs. Robt. Gray, of Bristol, was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. J. R. Rich.

The conference pledged itself to raise funds to place a bust of Jefferson in the Continental Hall in Washington.

U. D. C.

The principal discussion at yesterday's session at Suffolk of the Daughters of the Confederacy was with reference to the Home for Needy Confederate Women at Richmond. Among the leaders in the debates, which were warm, were Mrs. Montague, wife of Virginia's former governor; Mrs. Walke, of Norfolk; Mrs. Randolph and others. Finally a resolution offered by Mrs. Randolph was adopted, but, according to the secretary, Mrs. Black, the relation of the convention towards the home remains exactly the same as was defined at Lexington and Manassas. The convention was given a big oyster roast in the afternoon at Lake Savage.

Loomis Expected to Die.

Corlanti, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Because of the danger of blood poisoning and tetanus, there is possibility that Dr. Loring B. Loomis, the New York mining promoter and speculator who shot and killed Lillian Elodie Dodge-Chute, a prepossessing young stenographer, because she refused to marry him, may never be tried for his crime. Loomis has but a slight chance to recover.

Mrs. Loomis, from whom he has been separated for some time, is at his bedside. She arrived last night from Chicago and there was an affecting scene between the couple, although Mrs. Loomis had started a suit for absolute divorce. "We lived happily until a year ago," she said. "It was because business took him away from home so much that he fell in with this other woman."

The President.

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 14.—President Taft today motored over to Myopia to play golf with John Hays Hammond of Magnolia, and Capt. Archibald W. Butt. There are few important engagements on for the remainder of the president's stay, and he will leave here for New York Monday afternoon.

President and Mrs. Taft will go home hunting this afternoon all along the shore in this vicinity. It is expected they will come to a decision as to their location for next summer to-day or tomorrow. It is generally believed next year's summer capital will be at Magnolia.

Hofbrau Beer
for the Aged

When with age the blood becomes impoverished and ceases to pulsate through the veins with the same vigor as in youth, there is nothing more beneficial than Hofbrau Beer.

It is a happy combination of tonic, stimulant and nutrition. The tonic property is derived from the hops, a little alcohol furnishes the element of stimulation and the barley malt is highly nutritive.

Hofbrau Beer is a splendid drink for aged persons, anemics, convalescents and nursing mothers.
